

Charlotte's Web Writing Activities

1. Fern was always concerned that Wilbur would become next week's bacon or smoked ham. If you were her best friend, what advice would you give Fern to help her solve this problem? Be specific.

2. Templeton always returned with an incredible word for Charlotte to weave into her web. Add six words to her list, then select four and tell why each one would have been "perfect" to describe this "humble, radiant" pig.

3. Imagine that you are a reporter for the Porkopolis Pig Review. Write your newspaper article that would appear in the next issue about the Country Fair and this incredible pig.

4. Why do you believe three of Charlotte's children remained on the Zuckerman's farm the following spring? Was it fate, kismet, karma, destiny, or some other reason, which prompted them to remain? Explain your answer.

5. Who was your favorite character? What made them so special? If you could change or improve one characteristic of their personality, explain:
 - a. Which characteristic you would choose.
 - b. Why you selected this particular characteristic.
 - c. How you would change or improve it.
 - d. If it would change the outcome of the story.
