

Rapunzel

Writing Activities

1. Explain why Rapunzel's Grandmother pretended to be a witch? Why did she keep her identity a secret? What did she hope to gain with this façade?
2. Since there was another stairwell that could be used to exit the tower, why did Rapunzel not use it for her Grandmother, Prince Frederick, and herself? Why did she continue to have people use her hair to climb the tower?
3. Just imagine that the dragon, Divine Debris, was highly allergic to the forest and had a perpetual sneezing problem. Write the scenario that Divine Debris encountered because of this unique situation. What unusual, funny, outrageous, or ridiculous situation(s) could have occurred?
4. Each time Rapunzel tried to keep the world out, somehow it always kept coming into her tower. Have you ever wanted to keep the world out? Did the world continue to appear, even when you tried your hardest to keep it out? Share what happened and tell how you felt about this experience.
5. Write the final original melody of songs written by Desmond about their adventure and the lessons they all learned in the forest. Set the words to your favorite song and share it with your classmates.
